

Thomas J. Hartland || Chief Executive Officer

INDEPENDENCE || COMMUNITY COMMITMENTS & PERSONAL INTERESTS

Tom is a long-time Clevelander and deeply rooted in community. He has had a material effect on dozens of area non-profits through his professional advice. Personally, he has served on the boards of Hathaway Brown School and The Great Lakes Theater Festival and is a popular speaker at professional forums. Tom and his wife Claudine live in a refurbished 1928 condominium in Cleveland and together enjoy their three children, collecting art, travel and golf.

EXPERTISE || CAREER ACCOMPLISHMENTS & EDUCATION

Tom has been advising institutional investors for more than thirty-five years. At the beginning of his career, he helped build an investment consulting function at Prescott, Ball & Turben. Later, he became principal and senior consultant at another national investment consulting firm. Tom has received an MBA from the University of Toledo and a BSBA from Bowling Green State University.

RESULTS || RESPONSIBILITIES AT HARTLAND & CO.

Tom is the founder and Chief Executive Officer of Hartland & Co. His vision, to build a firm independent in structure and spirit, has been realized in a business advising over 100 institutional and private clients and $8 billion in assets. Working with executive leadership, Tom is integral in setting strategic goals and direction for the company. This includes the ongoing development of Hartland's institutional and private client areas, and the hiring and development of senior management.

“Although this company bears my name, there are many smart and talented people at Hartland & Co. that contribute to its incredible success. I am honored to work with professionals—everyday—that have helped me build a trusted, respected and innovative business.”
